

WHOLESALE LYNCHING.

Five Men Rushed Into Eternity By an Indiana Mob.

YELLOW JACK SLOWLY SPREADS.

New Cases Continue to Appear in the Stricken Cities of the South.

MURDERER ATTEMPTS SELF-DESTRUCTION.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 15.—Five white men, convicted of robbery and numerous other crimes, were taken from the jail and lynched at midnight by an unknown mob. The mob was well organized and determined. They did their work quietly and quickly. The city this morning is horrified at the terrible work, though there are many who approve of the mob's act.

Four other persons in jail will be lynched tonight. The mob is firm and in possession of the town.

SLOWLY SPREADING.

The Terrible Scourge of Yellow Fever Flies Near Victims.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 15.—The terrible yellow fever seems to be slowly spreading in this city and new cases have been reported today. The quarantine is being rigidly enforced and the health officers are doing all that can be done to stay the epidemic.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 15.—The reports from the yellow fever districts up to midnight are as follows: Four new cases are reported in this city, making fifteen in the city, with nine other suspicious cases under investigation. Two of the thirty-five cases of fever at Edwards, Miss., have turned out to be yellow fever, and the people of Jackson, twenty-five miles away, are fleeing in terror. Three more cases have been discovered at Mobile, besides several others of suspicious nature, and the people are leaving in crowds. Chattanooga has become alarmed, and instead of offering a haven to refugees, has quarantined against southern cities. Atlanta is threatened with quarantine because it offered a refuge to fugitives. The government has begun fumigating the mail from infected towns. All Alabama towns are quarantined against Mobile. From

ALL IS QUIET.

But Additional Miners Are Rapidly Joining the Strike.

Indications That All the Mines in the Pittsburgh District Will Be Idle.

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 15.—Despite a variety of alarming rumors and a morning movement by a body of miners, which looked formidable yesterday passed off without serious disturbance in the strike region. Matters still wear such an uncertain aspect, however, that Gen. Gobin declares the removal of the troops or of any portion of them has not been contemplated. The strike itself is spreading with great rapidity. Exact estimates of the number of men who have quit work are hard to obtain, but conservative figures place it at close to 10,000, with indications that in a short time every colliery of importance will be idle.

A DESPERATE MURDER.

Escaped and When Captured Tried to Suicide.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 15.—Ed Flanagan, an alien aged with the murder of the Allen family and sentenced, to be hanged on Monday, escaped this morning from jail and when captured was trying to kill himself with a knife. He was, however, unsuccessful in his efforts to cheat the gallows.

FIRE AT CLINTON.

A Hotel, Church, Postoffice and Two Stores Destroyed By the Flames.

Clinton, Ky., Sept. 15.—Fire at 2 o'clock yesterday morning destroyed three brick buildings owned by Thomas Emerson, the estimated loss being $17,000, and the insurance $8,500. One building was occupied by E. O. Reid & Son, dry goods; loss $15,000; insured for $5,000. The postoffice loss is about $600; insured for $300. Percy Jordan's confectionary store, valued at about $1,000, was insured for $450. A notable two-story building, occupied by two families, was insured for $1,200. A livery barn, owned by John Jackson, worth $1,000, was insured for $600. The 000, was insured for $8,000; Christian church's loss is $8,000; insured for $1,200. The parsonage insured for $1,200, was insured for $1,000. The Emerson hotel, in the recent story of the building occupied by Reid & son, lost about $15,000 worth of furniture, no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

A POPULAR MAN GONE.

Sad and Unexpected Death of Mr. Charles Roth.

HE WILL BE GREATLY MOURNED.

One of Paducah's Brightest and Most Popular Young Men Suddenly Summoned.

HIS LIFE—THE FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Mr. Charles Roth, the well known undertaker, died at 12:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 227 North Sixth street, of heart trouble and malaria fever, after an illness of only a few weeks. The death of this bright and popular young man has cast a pall of gloom over the city, for there was not a more highly esteemed or popular young man to be found anywhere. His illness was not deemed serious, and he was first up, and then down, but at no time believed to be in danger.

Mr. Roth spent a week at Crested, when he was first attacked by the malaria, but returned apparently little benefited. Last night his condition was worse, and early in the evening a crowd of his friends visited him, and he conversed with them in his usual happy vein for some time. About 10 o'clock he fell asleep, and the remainder of the family retired. About midnight Mr. Roth heard a noise in the room and found Mr. Roth unconscious. Dr. Reddick was immediately called, but before he arrived the young man was dead.

He was 26 years of age, and his birthplace was in South Meriden, Conn. He was born on August 11, 1871. He came to Paducah when 12 years old, having become an orphan, to live with his uncle, Mr. Frank Ellinger. He became a member of the firm when 21 years old, and proved himself an efficient, energetic business man.

Mr. Roth took a great deal of interest in secret lodges. He was Past Master of the Masons, Plain City Lodge, and was a member also of Paducah Royal Arch Chapter No. 30, Paducah Council No. 11, Knights Templar, and Paducah Nest of Owls, and of Paducah Ruling No. 537, Fraternal Mystic Circle. He was at the head, virtually, of the Owls here, and one of the leading Masons of this end of the state.

The deceased leaves two brothers and a sister, Mr. Fred Roth, of the city, Mr. Frank Roth, of Georgetown, O., and Miss Pauline Roth, of the city. He leaves several uncles, among whom is Mr. Frank Ellinger, of the city.

The time for the funeral has not been set, but it will likely be tomorrow. Relatives have been notified by telegraph, and the remains have been embalmed.

Mr. Roth was democratic nominee for coroner.

A LOAD OF HAY.

Turns Over on That $30,000 Wharf of Ours.

And Jesse Pickler is Thrown Several Feet Upon the Hard, Rough Stones.

Jesse Pickler, of near Brooklyn, had a close call this forenoon on the wharf after the ferry boat had made her trip about 9:30 o'clock.

He came over with a large load of hay, and in driving his team up the steep incline one side proved to be loaded too heavily. It toppled over, and three Pickler several feet on the hard stones, badly bruising him up. Fortunately, however, no bones were broken.

The hay was scattered and the wagon broken by the accident.

FAMILY TROUBLES.

A Case Investigated in the Police Court Today.

Two Neighbors Recognized For Good Behavior—Only One Case in Court.

Family troubles were aired in the police court today. The principals reside on Clay street, and their trouble is between neighbors, as might be guessed.

Mrs. Mary Williams was charged with using insulting language towards J. W. Gilliam and threatening to kill him with a brick.

Her son, Henry Williams, and Dr. P. A. Read were yesterday fined $3 and costs on $1 and costs, respectively, for using the same quality of speech to the same indignant citizen, whom it seems the neighbor can get along amicably.

It appears that the trouble originated from an alleged statement of Gilliam relative to Mrs. William and family.

EXPERT TESTIMONY.

Was Heard in the McGill Murder Case Today.

JUDGE BISHOP GIVES A DECISION.

Refusing to Admit as Evidence an Ante-Mortem Statement of Mrs. McGill.

SEVERAL OTHER CASES SET FOR HEARING.

Late yesterday afternoon Robert McGill, the alleged wife murderer now on trial in the circuit court, was placed in the witness stand, and admitted to shooting the woman. He said, however, that it was done in sudden heat and passion, while quarreling over a deed he accused her of removing from his trunk, with a pistol he had taken out to clean and oil.

A question was raised whether or not to admit as testimony a declaration made by the woman the night following the shooting, in which she is alleged to have said:

"Robert shot me; I don't blame him, though, and hope he will not be punished, as I do not love him and have done everything in the world to make him hate me. But in spite of all he has loved me and refused to believe me when I told him that I hated him."

The question was argued and decided, at length, this forenoon, Judge Bishop ruling that it was incompetent, as he did in the matter of the dying declaration.

He said, however, that in anticipation of the case being carried to the supreme court, which is not impossible, he would allow the evidence during the above statement to be taken by the stenographer in order that it might be considered by the higher court. It was not taken in the presence of the jury, however, and will not come before it at all.

Several ladies were then introduced that the stenographer might take their testimony.

After dinner the defense introduced expert testimony to show the nature of Mrs. McGill's wounds. Dr. Marshall, of the county, and Dr. Frank Boyd, of the city, gave it as their opinion that the wounds were not necessarily fatal.

At 3 o'clock the testimony of doctors was still being heard.

The following prisoners, indicted at this term, were called into court and the cases set as follows:

Annie Ramsey, m. c., 11th day, J. Harris, attorney; Geo. Winston, m. c., 13th day, J. Harris, attorney; Chas. Hopkins, h. b., 11th day, James Campbell, attorney; Steve Jordan, h. b., (four courts) 12th day, Dave Cross, attorney.

LIVELY FUSILLADE.

Between Constable Miller and a Fugitive.

The Negro Shot the Constable's Dog—Ten Shots Fired at Him.

Constable Anderson Miller, of the Massie section, had one of the most exciting chases of his life this morning. For several days he has had a attachment for Joe Scott, colored, wanted as a witness in the circuit court, and for several days Scott has eluded him.

This morning the officer espied him near Coleman's dairy, in the county, and gave chase. He saw Scott make a break for his house, and knew that he was after a gun. Constable Miller had his bloodhound with him, and rushed on in the house after the fugitive.

Scott ran out the back way, and coming shot the constable's bloodhound when the two emerged. He then fired other shots, apparently at his pursuer, and the Constable returned the fire with accuracy, shooting at Scott ten times in all. Owing to the distance, however, and the speed at which the two were going, none of the bullets took effect, and Scott finally escaped, after a long pursuit.

The constable made a search for his dog, or his remains, but could not find his way back to the location of the shooting again. The animal was a blood hound, and worth $75 $100.

WILL CLEAN UP.

A Committee of Citizens Calls on the Mayor.

This afternoon a committee composed of Messrs. Wallace, Riecke and Noble went before Mayor Yeiser and asked that the city be placed in as good sanitary condition as possible, owing to the prevailing sickness. The Mayor will doubtless take immediate steps, and today the flushing of gutters began.

MURDEROUS RIVER MAN.

Second Mate Tom Allen Shoots a Rouser,

AFTER BEATING HIM SAVAGELY.

The Sheffield Again the Scene of a Probable Murder This Morning.

PHIL HOLLOWAY, NAME OF THE VICTIM.

A stalwart rouser slouched up Broadway about 5 o'clock this morning inquiring the way to the city hall. The matted blood almost obscured his features, and clotting gore besmeared his woolen shirt and covered his breast wherever it was exposed.

He was directed to police headquarters by a couple of stationmen who were out exercising the fire department horses. When he reached the hall he was given a good "soft place" on the police court room floor upon which to lie. He gave his name as Phil Holloway, of Eddyville, Ky.

He stated to a St. reporter that he had been beaten on the head and shot in the right shoulder by second mate Tom Allen, of the City of Sheffield. He said he had been kept at work on the boat all night before last, yesterday, and most of last night. The mate began threatening him because he was not working hard enough, and he made some remark to another rouser about being imposed on, which seemed to incense the second mate. He struck the rouser on the head, and as the latter started to run through the wharf boat drew his pistol and fired at him, the shot taking effect in the right shoulder, the rouser's back being turned at the time.

The Sheffield is the same boat upon which one rouser was killed by another on the levee here a few weeks ago. It has the reputation of being the worst boat on the Ohio river for cut-throats and bullies, and it is said that a negro is killed aboard her on every trip.

Officer Sherman Phillips went down at 5:30 and searched the boat, but found no trace of Allen, although he went through the hull, as well as the remainder of the boat. He could get no information at all from any one and abandoned the search.

Allen is said to have been just recently out of the penitentiary, and is a very dominating kind of man. Holloway, on the other hand, is well known to the officer, who says he is a bully, and had "bull dozed" all the other rousers ever since the boat left St. Louis.

His wounds were dressed by City Physician Williamson. The bullet could not be located, and before Holloway was removed to the house of a friend on Washington street he began spitting blood, and his condition was believed to be serious.

A warrant will be issued against Allen as soon as the rouser is able to swear it out.

PURE CARELESSNESS.

Comes Near Causing Serious Accidents.

No warning signal was left at Fifth and Harrison streets, where the sewerage ditch was a several feet deep, with large piles of dirt on each side, last night, and as a result there were several accidents.

On account of the moonlight there was no electric light, and most of the hole was in the shadow.

Early in the evening a gentleman who did not give his name drove his buggy into it, badly injuring his horse, and this morning about 5 o'clock a sleepy marketer was traveling the even tenor of his way when the residents near by were awakened by a loud crash, and upon investigation learned that vegetables had gone down.

Such carelessness is likely to get some one into trouble.

CREWS CLEARED.

The Man From Wickliffe Turned Loose by Uncle Sam.

Doe Crews, of Wickliffe, who was arrested and brought here two or three weeks ago for violation of revenue laws, was released by Commissioner Puryear late yesterday afternoon.

Crews is the man who said he couldn't get enough whisky to drink, much less to sell. The government witnesses could not attend, and as Crews had been in jail for two or three weeks he was released.

Mr. Croal's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mr. Chas. J. Croal took place this afternoon under the auspices of the various lodges to which he belonged. The deceased had $13,000 in insurance on his life.

defeat of Col. L. D. Husbands in the primary, for his family is yet well looked after.

Wheeler Campbell is the Democratic nominee for city prosecuting attorney; W. F. Bradshaw for commonwealth's attorney; Dennis Moequet for representative, and it is rumored that Mr. Wheeler himself is not averse to another term in congress.

THE SILVERITES AND OTHER "ITES"

were quite unsuccessful in their raid upon the Farmers' Congress the other day. "Calamity" Willer, of Iowa, made a special trip to St. Paul to try to get the congress to adopt free silver, government railroads, government telegraphs, the income tax, and the initiative and referendum and other funny ideas of that sort, but the congress rejected all of them and went calmly on adopting resolutions commending the McKinley administration and the course of Secretary Wilson.

Too much can not be done now by the city authorities to promote a good sanitary condition in this city.

Complaints come from many portions of the city that the gutters are not properly flushed, and in fact have been flushed in several weeks. A vast amount of sickness is being reported and it is thought by many to be due to lack of diligence on the part of the city officials who have such matters in charge. While there is no probability that the yellow fever scourge will reach Paducah, the possibilities, should it break out here, are terrible to contemplate. The question is one of extreme importance and no necessary expense should be spared in putting the city in the proper condition.

Pio iron production made a sharp advance in August.

According to the "Iron Age's" figures the number of furnaces in blast on August 1 was 152. This was increased to 161 by September 1. The gross capacity of the furnaces in blast was, on August 1, at the rate of 165,378 tons a week, and this had advanced to 185,506 tons by the beginning of September. The growth during that period was noticeably large. During the latter part of the spring and early summer the pig iron output fell off, but as iron is a trustworthy trade barometer it had to go up when the business revival set in. The extent of the iron increase is a significant indication of the strength and solidity of the financial improvement.

THE SUN is not in the newspaper business for purely mercenary purposes; it has a policy to defend and a principal to fight for.

It will always be found in defense of true Republican doctrine, a sound currency and the upholding of the honor and dignity of the country. Of our two contemporaries, one proclaims the free silver doctrine, while the other—well, it's anything to anybody; with a manager who voted for McKinley and bolted the Democratic nominee for mayor, pretending to have a policy and is afraid to defend it; who dodges plain questions and attempts to mislead by trumping up side issues. We say nothing of the twenty-odd other papers published in the district preaching the Bryan fallacy of free silver and dollar wheat. We are satisfied with the results of the Sun's endeavors in defense of what it thinks is right, and shall continue to proclaim them long after the "Register" has passed into that realm which contains what has been but will never be again. Who did the manager of the "Register" vote for? Yeller, the magnum, or Johnson, the Democratic nominee?

It took six columns of words in the New York "World" of recent date for Mr. Bryan to try to explain why wheat and silver have "parted company."

He says that it is due to supply and demand, that there is a shortage of wheat abroad, and hence a demand and good price, while the small demand for silver makes a low price for it. By his statement that the demand for wheat has advanced the price, he unwittingly admits the truth of the Republican assertion of last year that the low price was the result of overproduction, and that silver had nothing to do with it. The drift of his rather dreary argument seems to be that if we had more money all around prices of everything would rise. Yet he does not show how anybody would be better off if prices of all articles simultaneously advanced in like proportion through an increased amount of currency. He seems to forget that the metallic money of the world has more than doubled since 1873, and that the United States has more of it in proportion to her population than almost any nation. His attempt to explain the prosperity which he said could not come without free coinage is not satisfactory to anybody except Mr. Bryan, who is understood to have been paid a good round sum for writing the article.

The importance of a thorough cleansing of a city cannot be overestimated.

Just now when the terrible scourge of yellow fever is hovering over certain portions of the South, the question is brought most forcibly to mind. But yellow fever is not the only disease that can be driven away by good sanitary conditions. In Paducah malarial fever and other dreaded forms of fever are with us and these must be prevented. The efforts of a scientific and business-like management of the street cleaning problem have been illustrated in the city of New York. Under the superintendency of Col. G. E. Waring, Jr., an expert sanitary engineer and a thorough business man, results have been attained that are remarkable. In 1893 the death rate in that city was 27.3 per thousand, while in 1897 it had fallen to 20.2 per thousand, a saving of 18,000 lives. This has been attained by scientific thoroughness in the street cleaning department. Col. Waring first made himself famous in his management of New York's street cleaning department, by his administrative ability as illustrated in his unexpected reduction of expense in his department, and the military precision and discipline introduced. But the sanitary results obtained have been of much greater importance. The results obtained in New York show what can be done in every large town and emphasize the importance of a thorough sanitary protection.

LYNCHED FOR STEALING.

Summary Punishment of a Provision Thief by Gold Hunters.

Marked Side of Back Found in His Pack.—Meeting of Miners Called and the Victim Promptly Strung Up.—"St. Louis" Left Written Upon an Envelope.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 12.—A letter from Juneau, under date of September 6, tells of the lynching of William G. Martin, of Missouri, for stealing food at Lake Bennett. The tragedy occurred on September 3.

Martin had sold what he could of his provisions at Skagway, abandoned the remainder and started in for the Klondike with less than a 60-pound pack on his back. Being so "light" his arrival attracted particular attention from camps of boat builders. His pack was secretly examined to see how much grub he had. It was noticed that he had about 20 pounds of bacon among other things, but no sugar. Martin camped back on the side of the hill in the brush alone. He must have heard how scarce provisions are expected to be in Dawson City next winter. He was suspected and watched, but it was not till after he had tried to buy provisions.

The second day it was seen that he had sugar for his coffee and that night his pack was uncovered and a side of bacon, branded with the private mark of one of the campers found. A poor attempt had been made to obliterate the mark. The investigators reported the facts to the few campers who had not yet turned in, and although it was late the entire camp was quickly aroused and a miners' meeting held. It was the general sentiment that an example should be made of the thief. The question was put. The reply to the motion was an instantaneous rising to the feet of every miner, and a crowd of about sixty determined men moved off into the brush, in the direction where Martin's dying campfire could be seen dimly flickering. Martin was asleep. He was unrolled roughly from his blankets and stood blinking on his feet.

"We stand no stealing in this camp. Your time has come," Martin was told. He started to speak, but said nothing, and stood trembling from head to foot.

"Do you want to leave a message to your friends?" he was asked.

"No," said the man on the brink of the grave.

"Do you want to pray?"

"No," said Martin.

"If there is anything you want to say, say it quick," said the spokesman.

A slipknot had been made at the end of a long painter of the boat, and the noose was put over Martin's head.

"Boys," said Martin, with faltering voice, "you know how it is, a man has mortgaged his all, starts for the Klondike and sees that he can't get there. If I am not hung my life is not worth much to me any more. I've got 1000 pounds of stuff at Skagway, and I'll promise on my life to carry it in here for you."

"Enough of that. It would not save you if the stuff was here."

Martin was half dragged down to the shore of the lake. It took less than two minutes to submerge the slender pines, dressed for a feast, in a forked upright and another mast from the rock on the bluff over between the forks.

"May I write a message, boys?" asked Martin.

"Be quick about it," was the answer.

Poor Martin took a letter from his pocket and kissed it. Then he tore it up, saving only the back of the envelope, stooped, pulled off his rubber boots, and placing the paper on the sole of one, wrote in darkness the following, in a cursive and trembling hand:

"Hoping that with the money I might make in the Klondike, sacrifice would go out the door and love return through the window, I left you. Kiss Ted, but never tell him. (Signed)

In the morning Martin's body was seen turning first one way and then back, like a kettle dangling over a fire, his hands tied behind him with a pack strap.

On the other half of the envelope which Martin tore in two were his name and the postmark St. Louis.

To the Public:

Many of our customers have asked the question, "Why don't you move on Broadway, as you have as nice and as large a stock as any body?" Now we must answer the question. A store on Broadway means a finer store—higher rent, finer fixtures, more clerks, more lights, etc. This all means more profit, and you have to pay for it.

Here are some Court street prices:

SHOE DEPARTMENT.

Men's fine dress shoes, Broadway price $3.50 to $5.00—our price, $2.00 to $2.50.

Men's everyday shoes, Broadway price, $1.50—our price, $1.00.

Ladies' fine dress kid shoes, Broadway price, $2.50 to $3.50—our price, $2.00.

Delay to North-bound Passenger Trains on Account of Quarantine.

This is the last day Master Mechanic Chambers has charge of the shops. The change takes place tomorrow, and Mr. William Hassman, of Water Valley, Miss., is to succeed Mr. Chambers. This is authentic, and all statements relative to the probability of Mr. Luttrell, Mr. Dickey or Mr. Anybody else being master mechanic at Paducah are mere buncombe.

Mr. Hassman yesterday telegraphed here to know if Paducah had quarantined against Water Valley, Miss., as he desired to ship his household goods at once.

They Say the City of Paducah Would Make.

The Crew All Sometimes Carry Guns, From Captain to the Rowers.

The United States government ought to charter the steamer City of Paducah and send her to Spain, should the latter get too gay. The City of Paducah would make an excellent gun boat, as the officers and crew all seem to be well provided with pistols.

While going up the river last week the captain, Mr. Kirkpatrick, shot twice at the St. Bernard watchman at the coal tipple, and yesterday one of the negro rowers, who was captain of the tug, kicked a white boy called "Dutch Charlie" off the stage plank and then drew a pistol on him.
